

Reggie and Ladye Love Smith

Reggie and Ladye Love Smith are two of the world's most sought-after vocalists. Best known for their Grammy Award-winning performances on Gaither Homecoming television specials and videos, Reggie and Ladye have performed in more than 30 countries and in such prestigious venues as the Super Bowl, New York's famed Carnegie Hall, and the Kremlin in Moscow.

Reggie is currently a member of the award-winning Gaither Vocal Band and Ladye is touring with the band as a soloist on their nationwide tour. Gaither Music has 133 recordings that have been certified gold, platinum or multi-platinum, garnering sales of more than 40 million DVDs and CDs. The Gaither Vocal Band is a member of the Gospel Music Association's Hall of Fame and has won two Grammy Awards and been nominated twelve times. They have also received 23 Dove Awards (gospel music's Grammy equivalent).

Reggie and Ladye have been performing as part of the award-winning "Gaither Gospel Series" which airs weekly on television networks all over North America and Europe. Its artists are seen regularly on PBS, RFD-TV, TBN, DirectTV and AT&T U-verse, along with numerous other networks. The company's website garners over one million hits per month; and the company now has over one million subscribers to its Gaither TV YouTube Channel, which has now garnered over one billion views. In addition, Gaither TV is now available on the internet, Roku TV, Google TV, Sony TV and Apple TV.

As a couple and individually, Reggie and Ladye have sung with some of the most iconic artists in both country and gospel music including Dolly Parton, George Jones, Lee Greenwood, Brenda Lee, Lyle Lovett, Darius Rucker, Ricky Skaggs, Sandi Patty, Larnelle Harris, and Patti Labelle, just to name a few. They have been part of the famous Opry Singers at the Grand Ole Opry, featured as vocalists at Billy Graham Crusades, and sung on movie soundtracks of award-winning films.

In addition to their musical contributions on Gaither Homecoming audio and video recordings, they have released nine duet albums along with the Reggie Smith Collection solo CD. In 2022, they released their first Christmas project through Gaither Music Group entitled, That Special Time of Year. Beyond touring and studio work, their popular Facebook Live cooking and singing segments led to the release of their new cookbook, "Ladye Love's Cookin' It Up with Reggie."

Both graduates of the University of Mississippi, Reggie and Ladye have one son, Bret and they make their home in Nashville, Tennessee. For more information, visit <http://wwwreggieandladye.com>.
